Mrs. Taylor

What a truly wonderful week we have had in school and I couldn't be any prouder of all the children who have shared their performances this week! The confidence, pride and enjoyment shown has been heartwarming and your thanks, appreciation and praise has been appreciated.

Staff work so very hard to balance preparations and rehearsals alongside ongoing teaching and learning which is no easy task, but do so with such enthusiasm and teamwork.

As we enter the final week of the autumn term, we look forward to our nursery children performances and the remaining festive events in school before beginning a few weeks of friends and family time.
