WOW! 🌈 World Book Day was absolutely fabulous yesterday! The effort and creativity of costumes and enthusiasm to read was just incredible all day. I was one of a number of staff who burst into classrooms waving a tambourine to indicate that children should stop what they were doing and listen to a story. I had chosen 'we're going on a bear hunt' and thoroughly enjoyed reading it four times to children in KS2. Their participation was wonderful as we moved through the long wavy grass and deep dark forest before arriving at the cave and fleeing from a bear!! 🐻

Children enjoyed the opportunity to read with another class and buddy up in addition to having another adult read a story to them.

We are going to introduce some wider reading opportunities more regularly based on the feedback from children and staff 📖

Please enjoy making use of your World Book Day £1 book voucher 📖
